Subject: Important Update on Eagle Bulk Shipping

Dear Valued Eagle Bulk Business Partners,

We are reaching out today to make you aware of an important and highly compelling transaction. As you may have seen, we entered into a definitive agreement to combine in an all-stock merger with Star Bulk Carriers Corp. (Nasdaq: SBLK), a global shipping company focusing on the transportation of dry bulk cargoes.

Our commitment to Eagle Bulk's existing third-party partnerships remains steadfast, and this strategic transaction will not have any impact on our existing relationship. We believe the transaction will be highly complementary for both organizations due to the composition of our fleets, similar customer bases and parallel cultures of excellence, integrity and work ethic. The resulting combined company will boast a leading, diversified and fuel-efficient fleet of 169 owned vessels, including 37 Newcastlemaxes/Capesizes, 52 Post-Panamaxes/Kamsarmaxes/Panamaxes, and 80 Supramaxes/Ultramaxs.

The combined company's substantially increased scale will create the largest U.S.-listed dry bulk shipping company, while helping generate increased value on the operating side of the business (commercial and technical) and improving our financing cost base for both debt and equity. Importantly, the transaction provides compelling value as it should provide you with benefits from our larger scale, increased operating efficiencies, deeper wealth of expertise, and enhanced pool of resources. We expect that the merger will close in the first half of 2024, subject to regulatory and shareholder approvals, and other customary closing conditions.

We have prepared the below FAQs that will serve to answer many of your questions, but should you have any additional inquiries or concerns, please feel free to reach out directly to our CCO Bo Westergaard at 203-276-8100 to discuss further.

Finally, this transaction would not be possible without the relationships—new and old—that we've developed with our valued business partners. Thank you for your contributions in making Eagle Bulk one of the world's premier dry bulk owners.

Best Regards,

Gary Vogel
Chief Executive Officer

FAQs

- What was announced today?
  - Eagle Bulk entered into a definitive merger agreement to combine in an all-stock merger on a Net Asset Value to Net asset Value (“NAV”) basis with a pro forma market capitalization of approximately $2.1 billion with Star Bulk Carriers Corp. (Nasdaq: SBLK), a global shipping company focusing on the transportation of dry bulk cargoes.
  - Eagle Bulk shareholders will receive 2.6211 shares of Star Bulk common stock for each share of Eagle Bulk common stock owned. This represents a total consideration of approximately $52.60 per share, a 17% premium based on Eagle Bulk’s closing share price of $44.85 on December 8, 2023.
- Who is Star Bulk?
  - Star Bulk is a global dry bulk shipping company focusing on the transportation of dry bulk cargoes with 119 vessels from Newcastlemax to Supramax, providing worldwide seaborne transportation solutions in the dry bulk sector. Star Bulk was incorporated in 2006 and has been listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol “SBLK” since 2007. They are a Marshall Islands corporation with offices in Athens, New York, Limassol, and Singapore. Its common stock trades on the Nasdaq under the ticker SBLK.
- How will this acquisition impact my relationship with Eagle Bulk?
  - This will result in no changes whatsoever to our relationship or our day-to-day operations. Until the transaction closes, which we expect to occur in the first half of 2024, it remains business as usual with Eagle Bulk and Star Bulk continuing to operate as separate and distinct companies.
- What is the value proposition to Eagle Bulk in this transaction?
  - This strategic transaction will create a global leader in dry bulk shipping with 169 vessels (including 2 newbuildings), across all the major vessel size segments.
  - The combined Ultramax/Supramax fleet will total 80 ships.
  - The merger will be highly complementary to both Eagle Bulk and Star Bulk for a number of reasons:
    - A Leading, Diversified Fleet of Scrubber-Fitted Vessels with Greater Scale. The combined company will be the largest U.S. listed dry bulk shipping company with a combined fleet of 169 owned-vessels on a fully delivered basis, 97% of which are fitted with Exhaust Gas Cleaning Systems (“scrubbers”), ranging from Newcastlemax/Capesize to Supramax/Ultramax vessels and a global market presence.

- Best-in-Class Technology-Driven Operations and Management. Both companies employ fully integrated ship management operations across commercial and technical management, and Star Bulk will leverage Eagle's expertise in the Supramax/Ultramax sector to improve upon utilization and performance.
  - Strong Financial Profile and Capital Return Framework: The combined company is expected to have combined liquidity<sup>1</sup> of more than $420 million, as of September 30, 2023, and net leverage of approximately 37%<sup>2</sup>. Both companies expect to maintain their respective dividend policies until the transaction is completed. Following close, the combined company expects to maintain Star Bulk's current dividend policy.
  - Significant Cost and Revenue Synergies. The transaction is expected to generate at least $50 million in annual cost and revenue synergies within 12-18 months following close through commercial operations integration and economies of scale, including reductions in general and administrative expenses.
  - More Attractive Investment Proposition: The combined company will have significantly increased pro forma market capitalization and expected trading liquidity in the dry bulk sector. With increased size and liquidity, the combined company expects to reduce its cost of capital.
- When do you expect the transaction to close?
    - We anticipate the transaction will close in the first half of 2024, subject to shareholder approval and other customary closing conditions.

<sup>1</sup> Combined liquidity, which is a non-GAAP financial measure, is calculated by adding the amount of Star Bulk's and Eagle's cash and cash equivalents and undrawn revolver availability, in each case, as of September 30, 2023, as adjusted for cash expenditures by Star Bulk in connection with its repurchase of shares held by Oaktree, debt repayments, dividends, draw downs under bridge facilities and proceeds from vessel sales and equity raises, in each case, during the period between September 30, 2023 and December 8, 2023, as applicable.

<sup>2</sup> Combined net leverage is calculated by dividing (a) the sum of Star Bulk's and Eagle's net debt by (b) the sum of Star Bulk's and Eagle's gross asset value. Net debt, which is a non-GAAP financial measure, is calculated as debt less cash and cash equivalents, in each case, as of September 30, 2023. Gross asset value, which is a non-GAAP financial measure, is fleet valuation as per VesselValues on October 29, 2023.

- Will the company change its name as part of the transaction?

- Following the completion of the merger, the combined company will operate as Star Bulk Carriers Corp. and will continue trading on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the ticker symbol SBLK.
